

Mackall Paratroopers To Meet Robins In Revenge Game Sunday

Maxion. June 4.—A revenge game that promises to be a battle to the finish is set for the Mid-State Cloth Mills park at Red Springs on Sunday at 3 o'clock when the 508th Parachute Infantry team at Camp Mackall meets the Flying Robins of the Laurinburg-Maxton Army Air Base and Red Springs.

In the opening game of the season the Robins defeated the Paratroopers, 6-5, in a 10-inning scrap. The Infantrymen are out to square the count and a steaming encounter is in prospect.
